LEADERS IN COMMUNITY FOCUSED MARKETING
PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

May is our month to volunteer at a Casino which brings us in a share of the money earned for those two days. With this we get to do some of the activities we couldn’t do otherwise. I would like to thank all those who volunteered their time. It is part of the spirit this community has, and we need to be proud of it.

By now most of the gardens are planted and watching them grow is almost a daily vigil. It’s time to sit outside in the evening and enjoy a cool drink. Don’t think about chores. Just relax for a little while. If you’re close to a park or playground you can probably hear the young ones having fun or the sounds of ball games or soccer. I know the community playing fields are probably in use. If you’re looking ahead, there is Neighbour day on Saturday June 15 where the whole family can have fun.

See you soon
Moe

Squirrels are one of the top threats to power grids, so much so that the American Public Power Association tracks data of squirrel incidents which they call “The Squirrel Index.” Some commentators have joked that squirrels are bigger cyber terrorist threats than foreign powers.

PARENTING:

Little Kids, Big Feelings
Monday May 13 6:30-8:30 pm
Big feelings are part of childhood, and yet responding to them as a parent can be very challenging! Come hear about the brain-body connection that helps children develop emotion regulation skills. Understand more about why children lose control of their emotions, what it means to ‘flip your lid’, and the role of parents in helping kids with feelings. Learn skills you can teach your children, and use yourself, to help your child manage big feelings. This session is presented by the Community Education Service of the Child and Adolescent Addiction, Mental Health and Psychiatry Program (CAAMHPP) of Alberta Health Services, Early Childhood & Perinatal Mental Health—AHS & the Family Connections Parent Link.

Call 587-392-2271 to register for this workshop and childcare.

Dealing with Disobedience (Triple P Parenting discussion workshop) for children 3-11 years
Monday May 27 6:30-8:30 pm
Come share ideas and experiences while identifying positive parenting strategies to help prevent problems and handle disobedience. Call 587-392-2271 to register for the workshop and free childcare starting April 25.

Avoiding Power Struggles
Mon. June 3 6:30-8:30 pm
The earlier the prevention, the less intervention. In this workshop we discuss issues and concerns regarding positive discipline; examine the difference between punishment and discipline and learn positive approaches to encouraging positive behaviour. This session is presented by the Community Education Service of the Child and Adolescent Addiction, Mental Health and Psychiatry Program (CAAMHPP) of Alberta Health Psychiatry Program (CAAMHPP) of Alberta Health Services, Families Matter Society and Family Connection Parent Link. Call 587-392-2271 to register and for childcare.

Parent Support
Come speak with the Parent Coach about parenting issues or concerns regarding children. Please call 587-392-2270 to set up a time to meet or speak on the phone.

Are You Interested in Walking?
North Central Family Support Program has a walking group!

Just 30 minutes a day walking outdoors can tone your limbs, strengthen your heart, boost your mood and Vitamin D levels, lower your risk of chronic diseases, increase your energy, lower stress … and it’s free!

Making your walk social increases those benefits!

We meet twice a week, Wednesday and Friday mornings, at 9 am until 10 am, at the doors of the Huntington Hills Community Centre. Strollers and dogs are welcome!

If you are interested, register by email to lorraine@wecconnectyou.ca with ‘walking’ in subject line.

Play With Me, Please!

As grandparents or seniors, when we hear a child ask us to play, do we think about how we played as children? Or do we think that we don’t know how to play in today’s fast-paced, electronic world? Exploring outside, making up games and stories with friends, spending afternoons building elaborate structures with sofa cushions and blankets or making mud pies in the back yard; these are all still wonderful ways to play. We know that spending time outside and in natural settings builds better brains and that positively connecting with other people helps children learn social and emotional skills. Having sensory experiences encourages connections in the brain and helps children with more complex learning later in life, (like reading and writing). Using imagination to transform pillows and blankets into a pirate hideaway or a princess castle promotes problem solving, language development and cooperation.

So, the next time a young child in your life asks you to play, think back to your childhood and jump right in! You can make a difference in a child’s life just by taking the time to play; the most important thing is to be available and enjoy the experience!

News from the Friends of Nose Hill

by Anne Burke

Don’t forget to check out our website at www.fonhs.org for all the information you will need about Plants in Bloom for the May Flower Count, during the last week of May (25-31). This is an annual event, when volunteers survey their favourite natural areas and provide valuable data on the distribution of flowering plants in Alberta. Conduct a fun “trek and check” through your favourite natural space. Expertise in wildflower identification is valuable, but not mandatory. Use our alphabetical flower list, which has space to record how far in bloom the flowers are.

Urban ecology and biodiversity are free and family friendly, in backyards, gardens, schoolyards, local parks, and community green spaces. At any time, citizen scientists can find nature, take photos of their finds, and share their observations by iNaturalist.ca. The app is free, enables identification, and operates all over the world now.

The Calgary City Nature Challenge involves taking photos of plants and animals (26-29 April) and then identifying them (30 April-5 May). Winners are announced 6 May (www.calgarynatureyyc.ca). Calgary, Halifax, and Richmond, B.C. are only 3 of the over 160 cities worldwide to compete for the most observations, number of species, and participants (www.citychallenge.org). Started in 2016 with 2 cities, the City Nature Challenge went national, in 2017, and, in 2018 with 68 cities, became an international event!

The new City Parks and Pathways Bylaw states: “natural area” is a park or portion of park space where the primary role is the protection of an undisturbed (or relatively undisturbed) area of land with characteristics of a natural or native plant community. The Director, Calgary Parks, may close or restrict the use of any park (or portion of a park) to protect endangered or at-risk species; to preserve vegetation required for wildlife; and to rehabilitate a natural area.

To disturb wildlife in a park ($200-$300), to disturb or damage park vegetation ($200-$300), and to remove park vegetation ($150-$250) are only a few of the minimum and specified fines for offences.
Development Permit Notices are Moving Online

Development Permit Notices will no longer be published in the newspaper after May 16th. Visit Calgary.ca/publicnotices to see detailed information on development activity in your neighbourhood.
