PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The blank canvass of winter gives way to Mother Nature's gifts to Calgary in the month of May. Daffodils, tulips, robin songs and ten hours of sunshine bring color and life to our dusty, brown, dry landscape. Colors emerge as the acceptance of these gifts fill our hearts with joy and our ears with song pushing open the windows and doors of our airless houses to bring the outside in. Patios populate and sounds of people fill the streets. It is spring and with the coming of spring comes the recognition of new life and the acknowledgment of that symbol of life that is important to every family, Mom. We are granted one day in May to give thanks to that person who gave her gifts to us to ensure we had the tools to grow. Our Mother Nature who brought color and songs to brighten our lives and was there in good times and bad times to see us through; our rock, our stability who accepted us for who we are and passed no judgments, Mom. TGWL make sure that every mom has a chance to do something special with those who she loves. The Mother's Day Tea is the event every Thorncliffe Greenview mother should take part in at least once in their life as this is the one event in a year that was built to bring a smile to Mom's face. Better than a bouquet of daffodils, better than a walk in the park, no muss, no fuss just good times with guiltless cake, strawberries and cream. What a great way to spend time with those you love. This event is one that has been embraced by the community over the years and sets us apart from others, mark the date and give mom the greatest gift, sharing of your time with her.

As spring approaches, the TGCA complex changes from inside busy to outside busy with the onset of Minor outdoor sports. The ball diamonds and soccer pitches fill up with young athletes and spectators and the golf courses populate with would be Mike Weirs. Our Alberta election has come and gone, and we take stock of what comes next. Thank you to Marvin Quashnik and his committee for putting on the candidates' forum. I hope the information that came out during this affair helped residents make a good decision in their choice for our representative. As a community association it is our job to facilitate information and hear the concerns of our residents. We then work with all levels of government to have our residents heard. TGCA is very lucky to have an active public service committee that is diligent in communicating information both ways; from government to the people and from the people to the governing bodies. It is not the role of the community to be partisan as we need a good working relationship with government in order to do our business. The projects we take on require grants and to get the grants we need the support of the various government entities. Marvin, Allison and Pat have done a great job ensuring that TGCA voices are heard and getting information to our members when they have issues. We may not always win our fights outright, but the compromise is done with TGCA's concerns being heard and addressed.

This year we are hoping to begin wholesale washroom modernization in the large hall. This will begin in the later part of the spring and move forward through the summer months. The rentals and bingo should not be affected, and business will continue as usual.

Looking forward to June and our neighbor day celebration; once again we will do the parade of garage sales. If you want to be included in these events call Thomas at the office and he will set you up. Thanks to our entertainment committee and the TGWL for staging a great Easter Caper last month, all the participants had a great time. Thanks go out as well to Evelyn and her bingo crew and all the volunteers who worked the Anniversary bingo. It was another success and we are that much closer to funding our new arena ice resurfacer. I have received many compliments over the last month from users of the facility and I commend our staff on a job well done. Enjoy the spring weather and we will see you around the complex as the spring moves forward.

Community Relations Report

by Mary LaCoste

For this year's Easter Caper, we changed things up a bit creating a busy atmosphere for everyone. The highlight of the day was Christopher Cool the magician. What a show! Everyone was equally amused. Christopher had a D.J. with him who did a bang-up job playing and entertaining! The air was filled with laughter, excitement and toe tapping. It may be just me, but it is rewarding to see not only the parents but the grandparents participating in the events.

Hot dogs, rice krispie squares and refreshments were served to 350 guests by our volunteers from Notre Dame High School.

The older children enjoyed Nerf Battle/Capture the Flag in the Greenview Room. We are planning on expanding so that we can have games for the older children. We had planned this after the Celebration of Winter Sports, it was too cold, and we had nothing but dancing planned. So, we dug our way through all the cupboards and have purchased some new equipment.

Thanks go out to Sandi Nevin for making our bean bags for the Easter Bunny toss game on such short notice.

The new playground should be built this June, so we have to change things up for Stampede. We are thinking outside games volleyball, ball, badminton etc. and of course something for the little ones.

We are always looking for ideas as well as helpers to assist in anyway please give the office a call at 403-274-6840.

Till next time, take care!

Mary

Q: Dear Bea,

Please explain the Idaho Stop. I've read your columns and you always say that bikes are vehicles so why should bikes get to ignore stop signs?! P.S. Your column is annoying but also helpful. Especially the one about the door zone. I was usually angry at bikes for riding so far away from parked cars, now at least I know why they do it.

A: Thanks for your question as well as your very informative and helpful feedback. Your question is a good one because there has been beaucoup de confusion around the Idaho Stop since it came before City Council.

To clarify: An Idaho Stop does not mean bikes can blow through intersections and ignore stop signs. It means that bikes can treat a stop sign like a yield and roll slowly forwards if it's safe. That's it. If there is a car coming, the bike has to wait, like any other vehicle. The Idaho Stop does not subvert the existing right-of-way law at intersections.

I cannot really understand why some drivers get cranky about this, but I suspect it has something to do with giving cyclists some sort of 'advantage'. Advantage to do what though? It's a bit ridicule, and juvenile frankly, to oppose something so trivial that makes a few lives a tiny bit easier and literally has no impact on drivers in any way. But if, in your mind, you find yourself thinking: "Yeah, but my aunt saw a guy on a bike do a thing once" to justify your opposition to this traffic amendment, then sit yourself down and re-think your entire approach to life on this planet, and while you're at it, mull over what a stop sign is for: That's right! To establish right-of-way at intersections and, less widely known, to regulate traffic speed and flow. Are there so many bikes riding down your neighbourhood street that their flow needs regulating? Are the bikes that do ride down your street going so fast that we need signs to slow them down? Can you give the same answer to those questions in reference to cars? Can a bike respect the right-of-way hierarchy at an intersection without a full both-feet-on-the-ground stop at a stop sign? Is there some weird life point they get by doing what (admit it) many cars do anyway? It's a rolling stop, not a harbinger of gothic doom, so mes amis, my advice is to just move along, there's nothing to see here. Idaho Schmidaho.

À la prochaine,
Xo
Bea

Celebrate Neighbour Day on June 15, 2019

Held annually on the third Saturday of June, Neighbour Day is an opportunity to get together with your neighbours and celebrate Calgary's strong community spirit.

Neighbour Day began in 2014 to celebrate the incredible outpouring of support and generosity neighbours demonstrated after the 2013 floods. It has evolved into an annual celebration of what makes Calgary such a great city – our strong and caring communities. Neighbour Day continues to grow each year.

Small grants up to $200 are available for residents of Thorncliffe and Greenview who plan an event. The event must be free and there is an application to fill out to request grants. Contact your Community Social Worker, Tannis Eapen to apply. Deadline for applications is May 24, 2019. For ideas and help in planning an event visit www.calgary.ca and search Neighbour Day. Get creative!
