A MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I would like to wish Triwood Resident's a Happy Valentine's Day. I hope you will be able to join us to celebrate at the Triwood Valentine's Day Dinner on February 14th. If you want more information about this event visit our website www.triwoodcommunity.com.

Soccer Registration is now open on the Triwood Community Association Website. This is a great way for children to meet other kids in the neighbourhood, get some exercise, and interact with fellow teammates.

The Triwood Spring Camps are now open for registration on the website as well! We are offering a Kids in the Kitchen Camp and a Spring Dance Camp for children 3 to 12 years old. This is a great way for your children to stay busy, learn some new skills over the Spring Break, and maybe even learn how to make you dinner!

Triwood will be having a 150th Canada Day Celebration on the July long weekend. We will have festivities for children and for the older folks all weekend long. We are excited to announce that The Older Than Dirt Band will be performing as well as the Bobby Gosse Band! We will also have a Carnival for the kid's, fireworks in the evening, and many more activities to entertain you. We will post the entertainment schedule in the upcoming newsletters.

VOLUNTEERING....
Good for the Soul

TRIWOOD TRI-LIGHTERS

50+ SENIOR LADIES' GROUP

Senior Ladies, we meet every Monday and Wednesday mornings for Tai Chi at 10:00am. Thursday afternoon we have a small but friendly group that meets at 1:30 pm for conversation, cards and refreshments.

For more information please call Betsy 403-289-9082 or Joyce 403-289-6972.

TRIWOODSMEN

SENIOR MEN'S SOCIAL CLUB

Jack is back!! That's right. Jack Thomson of the Triwood Triwoodsmen is back from open heart surgery and is looking for more new and "used" members. Now is the time to join and renew as Jack is refreshed and hot to trot looking forward to a lot of activities this summer.

If you are not aware, the Triwood Triwoodsmen are a senior men's group who meet every Tuesday between 1pm and 4pm. We have a short "get up to date" then move on to playing pool, a dime game, shuffle board, and cards. For those so inclined, we also just sit around and shoot the breeze while solving any and all problems of the world.

Four times a year we get together with our wives, girlfriends and the ladies from the Triwood Tri-lighters for a dinner at Halloween, Christmas, Valentine's Day and Easter. From what we have been told everyone has a good time and they look forward to the next get together.

For more information, please contact: Jack Thomson - 403-282-3595

News from the Friends of Nose Hill

by Anne Burke

Calgary has over 8,000 hectares of parkland and natural areas, including 800 kms. of pathways. Public off-leash areas are also multi-use, so let's share these spaces. It is illegal to harass wildlife in parks and natural areas. Keep dogs on leash on paved pathways, even in an off-leash area if wildlife are near. Better to be safe than sorry. Keep your dog away from porcupines and coyotes.

Conservation in an urban world means protecting natural areas, according to Alberta Wilderness Association guest speaker Chris Manderson, urban conservation lead for the City Parks Department. He explored how Calgary has been shaped by its natural environments and, in turn, how they are impacted by a growing city of 1.2 million in an urbanising world. Although Calgary is blessed with a rich fabric of parks and protected areas, he acknowledged some of the new challenges and approaches to protecting Calgary's natural heritage. The Alberta Wilderness Association is a non-profit, federally registered, charitable society since 1965. Dedicated to the completion of a protected areas network and conservation of wilderness, the group has a provincial office and resource centre in Calgary, active members, volunteers, and sponsors in Alberta and beyond. Go to www.albertawilderness.ca.

Since 1996, communities have had the option to pay a public tax for enhanced landscape maintenance in parks and other green spaces.

Usually, community associations and residents organizations are responsible for overseeing irrigation, weed management, mowing, trimming, and cleanup. The levy per household ranges from $39 to $219. City-wide standards for local parks were reviewed. If a $5 levy was added city-wide, the increase would not be enough. Instead, the Canada 150 banner/flower pilot program in 16 communities will be extended for another two years and possibly expanded. Using native plantings instead of annuals would help reduce cost and watering. The City will ask for feedback, partner with garden and community groups, and explore options. The focus will be on community entrances, major intersections, and open spaces. The plan is to introduce flower beds and street light banners in each community. The aim is to add 20 communities a year, while 14 communities were involved in the This Is My Neighbourhood program. www.engage.calgary.ca/TIMN.

Alberta Ecotrust announced a 2nd annual Environmental Gathering: "Breaking Through", Feb. 23 - 25, 2017 at the Shaw Conference Centre, in Edmonton. Details are at www.albertaecotrust.com.

Friends,

With the start of February, we are firmly in the new year. I hope everyone had a restful January and a chance to put their new year's resolutions into practice. Late January also marked the Chinese New Year and the start of the Year of the Rooster. I had the wonderful privilege of attending a celebration at the Chinese Cultural Centre on January 28th and will be attending the Hong Kong Canadian Business Association gala in February.

Over a million Albertans have seen money appear in their bank accounts as carbon rebates have started rolling out across the province as part of the Climate Leadership Plan. About 6 in 10 households will receive a full carbon rebate. There is no need to apply, as it is based on your 2015 tax return, and to keep receiving it, you must keep filing your taxes. For more information, Albertans are encouraged to call the toll-free Government of Alberta hotline (310-0000) from anywhere in the province.

When the spring session of the Alberta legislature starts, I expect we will have a productive time addressing the concerns of Albertans. Budget 2017 will be tabled in this session, and Finance Minister Joe Ceci has been hosting public consultation meetings throughout the province. Online submissions will be accepted until February 3rd.

Throughout the winter my office will be attending Community Association meetings, AGMs, and Community programs throughout Calgary-Varsity to ensure I'm always informed about how best to represent local issues at the provincial level.

Our office serves all the people of Varsity, Dalhousie, Brentwood, Banff Trail, University Heights, Montgomery, and Charleswood. Our team is available to talk to constituents about provincial government departments, programs, scrolls, and services. Please visit us in our office, and let us know how we can help you, or to find out where we might be out-and-about in the community!

Hello Calgary-Klein!

As of November 2016, approximately 110,000 families, caring for an estimated 200,000 children, have received the Alberta Child Benefit (ACB).

The ACB, which came into effect this past summer, helps families to make ends meet and support the well-being of their children.

If you have a child under the age of 18, have been an Alberta resident for at least one month and earn less than $41,220 per year in net family income, you may be eligible for the benefit.

To qualify for the ACB, Albertans must file their tax return. The current benefit year for the ACB runs from June 2016 to June 2017, and eligibility is based on 2015 income tax returns.

If you have not yet filed your 2015 tax return, you are encouraged to do so to benefit from the ACB and other programs that you may qualify for.

Visit humanservices.alberta.ca/childbenefit or call the Alberta Supports Contact Centre at 1-877-644-9992 (780-644-9992 in Edmonton), for more information on the ACB.

As always, our office is happy to hear any feedback from constituents, and we may be reached at calgary.klein@assembly.ab.ca or 403-216-5430.

It's tax time!

It is tax time and you may require assistance when filing your taxes and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) can help. They offer service in both official languages as well as via TTY service. Their website at www.cra.gc.ca is an invaluable source of information for the 26 million tax filers in Canada.

Most Canadians get a tax refund and so it pays to file your taxes. Low-income Canadians must file a tax return to access certain income support programs. Free tax preparation software is available at www.cra.gc.ca/netfile.

It is important to avoid tax scams! The CRA will NEVER communicate with you via email. If you get emails regarding your taxes, they are not legitimate and should be deleted immediately without opening the attachments. If you receive a phone call from someone saying they are from the CRA and you are unsure if it is legitimate, hang-up and call the CRA directly and they will be able to call up your file and address any issues. Never give personal information to a stranger.

Through the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program (CVITP), community organizations host free tax preparation clinics and arrange for qualified and security-cleared volunteers to prepare income tax and benefit returns for eligible individuals who have a modest income and a simple tax situation. To see the clinics in Calgary, please visit www.cra-arc.gc.ca/tx/ndvdl/vlntr/clncs/calgary-ab-eng.html or call 1-800-267-6999.

If your enquiry requires CRA to access your account and release or update personal information, they will ask you to identify yourself. Please be prepared to provide the following:

- your social insurance number or business number;
- your name or business name;
- your complete address or complete business address;

- your date of birth (individual accounts only);
- for individual and trust accounts, details from your account or your most recently assessed return, notice of assessment, reassessment, or other tax document; and
- for business accounts, details from your business account or your most recently assessed business-related tax information return.

If you wish to deal with the CRA on someone else's behalf, you must be an authorized representative.

For a full list of contact numbers for the various departments at CRA, please visit www.lenwebber.ca/need-help-with-your-taxes/.

Canadian Cool

Even with Calgary's fairly mild winters, many dread the snow and the cold, choosing to squirrel away indoors. But what if we did not shy away from winter? What if we celebrated the season and embraced our cold climate?

There are many ways to live healthy, active, and social lives in winter that do not require leaving the city for the mountains or hitting the indoor gym. Here are a few ideas that Calgary and other winter cities are exploring:

- Build warming huts along our pathway network. These tiny pop-up pavilions encourage pathway use in the winter by providing a space to mingle with fellow Calgarians and get toasty. In Winnipeg, huts are also fanciful art installations created through an annual design competition.
- Promote ice skating across the city. The City of Calgary operates large outdoor rinks at Olympic Plaza and Prince's Island, with several community associations maintaining smaller local rinks. Talk with your community association about building one. In Edmonton, the Freeze Way is a pathway-like skating route that encourages people of all ages to strap on their skates for a lantern lit skate through City parks.
- Encourage skiing in the city. In Edmonton, transit users are encouraged to "ski to LRT" with free secure cross country ski storage at LRT stations. In Calgary, the Foot-hills Nordic ski club is piloting improved cross-country

- skiing trails at the Confederation Park Golf Course.
- Develop a four-season patio culture. Many cities have busy patios well below freezing through the use of heaters, blankets, and protective awnings. This sparks social interactions and boosts the local restaurant scene. In our city, hardy Calgarians line up down the street to get into the Container Bar patio on Kensington Road, even in the dead of winter.
- Shop local! Montreal sets up colourful Adirondack chairs around communal fire pits along their retail streets to foster casual conversations and encourage shopping at local businesses. The Mount Pleasant Community used to run a weekly get together and story-telling around a fire pit – the cut off was minus 15.
- Organize local walks, events, and festivals throughout all four seasons, not just the summer.
- Make transit work in all seasons by providing heated bus shelters at key locations, with priority snow clearing on connecting sidewalks.
- Plan for a winter climate. Edmonton's new Winter City Strategy encourages the design of buildings and public spaces to include shelter from the elements and allow for more sunlight to shine on sidewalks.

Some of these ideas require effort from the City, but others can be pioneered by Calgarians. Together, we can build a city that is vibrant and active throughout the year. Bundle up, get outside, and embrace winter!
