NEWS & NOTES FROM THE DCA

October 30th

DCA Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 30th. It is very important that more members come out to support our hard working board members and also offer to work on the board if you can spare some time. Our present board continues to make sure that we have a few special events going on and work toward that happening. However, they too are very busy people and need all the help and support we can give them.

This year in addition to helping with the June Western Dance, hosted by our reliable hosts: Randy and Cathy Evans and family, the Board worked hard to make sure the Canada Day Pancake Breakfast would happen another year.

Members in good standing of the De Winton Community Association will be asked to approve the Annual Financial Statement, as well as vote on the nomination of new Directors for the Board.

We are excited about some new projects in the planning stages for the Hall, and would welcome your input. And

Halloween Safety

Alberta Health Services EMS would like to remind parents and trick-or-treaters of some basic Halloween safety tips, as October 31st approaches. As a member of the Calgary's Child Magazine, Partners for Safety; ambulances, along with Calgary police, fire, bylaw, transit, and Shaw Cable vehicles will be out patrolling communities on Halloween night, to provide a visible safety resource for parents and trick-or-treaters.

Trick-or-Treaters

- Remember: all regular pedestrian rules still apply. Be sure to cross the road at marked cross walks or well lit corners only. It is safest to work your way up one side of the street and then cross once to the other side.
- Stay away from houses that are not well lit. Do not accept rides from strangers, or enter any home you feel is unsafe.
- Let your parents know where you are going to be at all times and advise them if you will be late returning.

Parents

- Be certain that young trick-or-treaters are accompanied by an adult. Older children should stay in groups.
- Pre-determine boundaries to trick-or-treat within and establish a firm time to return home.
- Advise children not to eat anything until they return home. Dispose of any items that appear to have been tampered with, or that are not properly wrapped.

Costumes

- Choose bright colored costumes that are highly visible. Adding reflective tape to costumes further increases visibility.
- Consider sending your children with a flashlight for additional safety and increased visibility.
- When purchasing or making costumes, look for materials and accessories that are labeled flame-resistant.
- All costume accessories, such as sticks, rods or wands, should be soft and flexible, with no sharp edges.
- Consider using hypoallergenic make-up kits instead of masks that may impair breathing or vision.
- Be sure costumes are loose enough to be worn over warm clothing – but not so baggy or long that they become a tripping hazard. Costumes should not be longer than your child's ankles.
- Ensure your child is wearing adequate foot wear that takes into consideration weather conditions and walking.

Carving PUMPKINS

Carving pumpkins is a traditional, fun part of Halloween, using simple designs or intricate carvings. Here are a few tips for carving your pumpkins:

- Draw a pattern on a piece of paper
- Transfer your design onto the pumpkin by punching holes with a small pointed instrument through the paper
- Cut into the top of the pumpkin at a 45 degree angle to create a ledge so the top won't fall back inside the pumpkin when placed back on as a "lid"
- Scoop out the seeds and pulp from inside the pumpkin
- Carve out the pattern, working from the centre of the design outward. Cut the larger areas into smaller chunks to make them easier to remove

Furry Ears come in all shapes and sizes

Veterinarians see a lot of patients with various problems of the ear canal and the pinnae or external structure of the ear. The worst victims tend to be dogs with trailing ears like Bassets or Poodles with hair-filled ears, but similar problems extend to all pets.

Puppies, kittens, and ferrets frequently have ear mites. The mites are discovered incidentally when the pet is examined for first vaccinations. The ears are full of black crusty material and mites are visible with a microscope. There may be only one patient in a household of pets with the parasite or everyone may have mites. Now, instead of medications instilled into the ear canal over weeks, veterinarians prescribe a single dose of an anti-parasitic applied to the skin, with possibly a few follow-up treatments.

Clinical signs of an ear infection include head shaking, scratching or rubbing at the ears. The ears may appear red, stinky, and may or may not have a discharge. In the worse cases I can smell the pet's ears from 10 feet away as I enter the exam room. Causes include parasites, fungal or yeast infections, bacterial infections, and allergies. Veterinarians will frequently treat the animal topically with a broad spectrum medication after examining the ear with an instrument called an otoscope, and possibly looking at a smear under the microscope or sending a smear for culture.

If ear problems persist or reappear chronically, more extensive testing may be required to isolate the causes. Ear problems can be primary such as a persistent bacterial or yeast infection in that floppy-eared Cocker Spaniel. Diagnostics may be necessary to find the right antibiotic or antifungal medication and to rule out resistant infections. The infections also may be persistent because they are secondary to allergies or endocrine diseases such as hypothyroidism. Appropriate treatment options may only be reached following diagnostic procedures including blood work and biopsies or food trials to eliminate allergens. In elderly pets a warty structure or growth inside the ear may start persistent ear problems. There may be a foreign object in the ear such as a grass seed.

Prevention of chronic ear problems can include plucking the hair from a pet's ears, grooming to prevent matting of the hair, and regular cleaning with ear cleaners. Ear cleaners are far more effective than alcohol which stings and dries the skin.

Severe ear infections and inflammations are not only painful for the pet but may affect the pet's relationship with its owner. An otherwise sweet dog may lash out if inadvertently the painful ear is touched or the odor may be so bad you don't want to be in the same room as the pet.

A different type of problem of the ear flap is called an aural hematoma. This is when the external part of the ear is traumatized by shaking, fighting, or even accidentally cracking the ear and head against a hard surface. A blood vessel is ruptured and the ear develops a bubble of blood between the two skin layers. This problem may be easily solved with draining the blood but more often surgery is necessary. Hematomas are common in long-eared dogs but I have seen a few in cats.

For most of us, furry velvety ears are one of our favorite parts to rub, scratch, or adore on our companions. Seek early medical attention for your pet if you suspect an ear problem.
