PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Summer is in full swing! We will be celebrating with our annual Stampede BBQ on July 16 from 11am to 2pm. Come join us on the Centre grounds for a great meal, entertainment and neighbours showing off their Stampede spirit! Other fun dates to celebrate in July include Canada Day (July 1st), International Kissing Day (July 6th) and National Cheesecake Day (July 30th).

Construction continues at St. Cyril Elementary School. The progress made is now showing and we look forward to seeing all the children back in residence at St. Cyril this fall.

The construction and renovation projects within our Centre continue through the summer too. We will be focusing on the painting for the Centre's exterior while the warm weather lasts. Sadly, we have received no feedback from residents regarding the Centre's east exterior mural which is in need of repair. We were looking for any historical significance or suggestions for a change to the existing mural. The West Patio Project now has new glazed windows installed on the west patio and the underlayment and insulation are complete. By our next issue this project should be completed. Drop by and check out the fresh new look in the Centre. We recently completed an exhaust fan upgrade to the Centre to bring the building ventilation up to current code requirements. New diffusers were installed in the gym to the HVAC system providing an evenly dispersed flow of ventilation through out the space. New ceiling tiles and LED pot lights were installed in the upper rental rooms. Repairs were done to the west stairwell concrete bricks efflorescence problem. We spruced up the west side of the property with a fresh application of mulch which enhances the look of the Aspen area.

"New" Cedarplay Days. Kids in the community can learn to play Pickleball, Basketball, or just kick a ball. Check out our signs and the July schedule for dates and times. This is a great new program spearheaded by our newest staff member Robert (Bam Bam) and is free to all with a Cedarbrae Community Membership. Come on by or go online to purchase any of the three types of memberships offered on page 14/15 of this newsletter. "Get Active, Get Involved!"

Volleyball Alberta has collaborated with our Association again this year to offer kids summer programs. These Volleyball programs will take place throughout the month of August. Please check out www.volleyballalberta.ca for details and registration. Courses fill up early, so register quickly!

The gardens look great and I've met quite a few of new members as well as our regulars, you've all got "Green Thumbs"!

The Canadian Cubing Event held in May was quite an incredible undertaking and all the volunteers pulled it off. I personally have never seen so many brilliant young minds at work in problem solving, I felt proud to be Canadian surrounded with this talent pool.

Many of our regular programs have concluded their seasons and will return to us in the fall. Summer at the Centre brings many celebrations, weddings, birthdays, parties of all kinds. We offer some beautiful spaces for rent; please call the Centre office to book a tour, we would love to have you.

None of our events can happen without the dedicated hard work of our Community Volunteers. Cedarbrae Volunteers have discovered the benefits of engaging in a more purposeful life, making new contacts and friends while developing new skills. We encourage all residents to volunteer their time for our Community, please contact the Centre office for opportunities or contact me directly.

Community memberships are still available for our 2016/2017 membership year. Our members have found the heart and soul of Cedarbrae. Meeting new friends, learning new skills, getting involved in community decision making, and having a real impact on the lives of others. Membership applications can be completed and dropped off at the Centre or online through our website's secure membership page.

One last note to our residents, Dynamic Kidz Daycare is operating in their freshly painted area for the upcoming season, come by and have a visit with Noreen the Daycare Director.

Please visit our web page: mycedarbrae.ca, Twitter: @Cedarbraeinfo or like us on Facebook. The centre office is often open too; stop by to check out all the activity happening in our neighbourhood.

Look forward to seeing you at the Centre.

Community Minded,

Steven Brown, President, CCLA

SCHOOLS

St. Gerard School

Cher Parents,

It's hard to believe that this will be my last principal's message for St. Gerard. It has been a great ride and I have enjoyed serving this community for the last 7 years. I am thankful to have had the opportunity to work with such great teachers and kids; they made it easy to come to work every day. I was also blessed to have a supportive and collaborative parent community to work with; together we have made our school even more amazing. St. Gerard has had principals before me and will have others after me; however, although we steer the ship, it is the community that makes this a great school and that will never change.

God Bless and thank you for giving me the privilege of working with your kids.

Mme Wozny

Blue-winged Teal a Little Dabbler

By J.G. Turner

The Blue-winged Teal's formal name (Anis discors) comes from the Latin words for "a duck" (Anis) and discors or "disc about the mouth" which may refer to the face pattern of the male. The adult male has a rounded slate blue head with a crescent shaped band of feathers behind its black bill and in front of its black eyes. The male has a light brown body with a white patch near the rear and a black tail, and shows a blue patch with a white border on its fore wings, especially when in flight. The adult female is a mottled or scalloped grey-brown with a whitish patch at the base of the tail and bill, and a dark line through its black eye. The bill is quite large. Blue-winged and Cinnamon Teal females and immatures are very hard to distinguish from one another.

This is a small (especially compared to the large Mallards common to Alberta waterways) dabbling duck (meaning that it feeds on the surface on vegetation or water insects just ducking its head under water, or by tipping right up, pointing its tail end upwards while feeding on submerged vegetation). It is only about 16 inches (40 cm) long, with a wingspan of 23 inches (58 cm) and weighing in at only 13 ounces (370 g).

This is the most common teal in Alberta's grassland and parkland areas. The best area for it to live in is likely to have grassy spaces mixed with wetlands. It is most likely found in the calmer waters of marshes, sloughs, ponds and the weedy edges of small lakes. Nests are built in concealing grasses or vegetation on dry land, but near to water. You might see a Blue-winged Teal cruising near the shoreline (rather than out in open water) or resting on logs or rocks sticking above the water, on top of muskrat houses, on bare shoreline or mud flats. In the late summer they undergo a moult (during which they shed their old feathers and grow new ones), which prevents them from flying so they will spend this time in prairie sloughs or large marshes with good food supplies. Although it is found in the right habitat throughout the province, the Blue-winged Teal is most common in central and southern Alberta.

This little duck hangs out in pairs or small groups spending most of their time foraging in shallow waters. They are described as being "abundant" in North America, with numbers varying in response to water conditions, with drought causing populations to fall. They are the first ducks to go south in the fall and the last ones to arrive north for the breeding season in the spring. It is likely that they leave early and arrive back late because they are long distance migrators, some going as far as South America (a Blue-winged Teal banded in Alberta was found in Venezuela a month later). The oldest recorded Blue-winged Teal was a 23-year-old male, banded in Alberta and found in Cuba. Overwintering in Alberta is not common, but has been recorded in Calgary and at Wabamun Lake.

If you find an injured or orphaned wild bird or animal in distress, please contact the Calgary Wildlife Rehabilitation Society hotline at 403-239-2488, for tips, instructions and advice, or look at the website at www.calgarywildlife.org for more information.

Benefits of Community Membership

Your community association is a group of volunteers who work to make your community a great place to live for residents of all ages. It provides: a voice for the community on changes and new developments that affect residents; information, programs and support, low cost recreation, sports and social activities and discounts for members on various goods and services.

You can become involved with your community association in two important ways:

TEN GOOD REASONS TO JOIN Your Community ASSOCIATION:

- Programs and Services for all ages. Preschoolers to seniors, community associations offer programs directly or provide support to other organizations offering programs.
 - Sports. Community Associations offer you recreational and sports opportunities.
 - Community Safety. Block Watch, Block Parent and bicycle safety programs are examples of how community associations ensure safety in the neighbourhood.
 - Special Events. Many events are provided throughout the year that provide an opportunity to meet others in the community and have some fun. Events include the Stampede Breakfast, Children's Christmas Party, Community Cleanup Weekend, and others are always in development.
 - Awareness and Responsive to Planning and Development Issues. The community association makes every effort to keep track of development and planning proposals in the area such as transportation, park development, and traffic issues. The City of Calgary often consults with the community association on these issues.
 - Community Newsletter. The community association communicates to the residents the activities, programs and services that are happening in the community through a regular newsletter.
 - Facility Operations and Rentals. Many community associations operate a facility that is available for programs, meetings, social and private functions. Outdoor tennis courts are also maintained for the benefit of the community residents.
 - Membership does have its benefits. Certain events offered in the community by independent groups/individuals offer discounts on registration to community members.
 - Representing the Community on Regional Committees and Initiatives. Community association designates represent the community on regional issues of interest such as major parks, major infrastructure projects in the area or social issues.
 - Improving the Quality of Life. Community Associations are created by individuals who want to improve the quality of life for themselves and others in the community. Share the feeling of community pride — become a community association member and volunteer.
- Community Associations are a great place to belong. It's easy to join, mail in the attached registration form with payment or call the hall to arrange a time to join.

Become a member. When you purchase a membership in your community association, your dues are used to offer you and your neighbours many programs and activities.

Become a volunteer. Community Associations rely on volunteers to make things happen. There are many ways you can volunteer to make your community a more enjoyable place to live. At the same time you will make new friends and learn skills.

Common Pests in our Garden

hope robins and other bug-eating birds will swoop in to gather the juicy cutworms. Big, sturdy seedlings are naturally resistant to cutworms, so many gardeners said they set out seedlings a bit late to avoid cutworm damage.

Last fall, MOTHER EARTH NEWS launched our Organic Pest Control Survey to learn more about what works and what doesn't when it comes to limiting insect damage in organic vegetable gardens. About 1,300 gardeners from across North America responded, providing new, region-specific insight into organic pest control.

We were surprised by some of the results. For example, we suspected gardeners would report that coping with various root maggots was a challenge, but 90 percent of respondents reported getting good control with crop rotation. Ultimately, the survey revealed 12 widespread garden pests that give gardeners grief. Here are the nitty-gritty details, including down-in-the-dirt advice on how to manage each pest, plus details on which pests are the worst in each region

Listed below are a few of these pests that affect our area.

1. Slugs took top honors as the most bothersome pest in home gardens, with 55 percent of respondents saying the slimy critters give them trouble year after year. Handpicking was highly rated as a control measure (87 percent success rate), followed by iron phosphate baits (86 percent) and diatomaceous earth (84 percent). Opinion was divided on eggshell barriers (crushed eggshells sprinkled around plants), with a 33 percent failure rate among gardeners who had tried that slug control method. An easy home remedy that received widespread support.

2. Aphids were on the watch list of 50 percent of respondents, but the success rates of various control techniques were quite high. Active interventions, including pruning off the affected plant parts and applying insecticidal soap, were reported effective, but so were more passive methods, such as attracting beneficial insects by planting flowers and herbs. Several readers noted the ability of sweet alyssum and other flowers to attract hoverflies, which eat aphids. "We attract a lot of Beneficial's by planting carefree flowers in the vegetable garden, including calendula, borage, zinnias, cosmos and nasturtiums" (Midwest, more than 20 years of experience). Other respondents commented on the importance of having some aphids around to serve as food for ladybeetles, hoverflies and other well-known beneficial insects. Was beer traps (80 percent success rate)

3. Cutworms were a concern for 41 percent of respondents, and effectiveness ratings for using rigid collars (made from plastic drinking cups or cardboard tissue rolls) to protect young seedlings from damage were amazingly high (93 percent effectiveness rating). A common practice to reduce cutworm damage is to cultivate the soil's surface once or twice before planting and

4. Cucumber beetles wouldn't be so bad if they didn't transmit deadly bacterial wilt to cucumbers and melons, but as it is, 39 percent of our respondents named them as serious garden pests. Neem, handpicking and good garden cleanup (removing all plant debris) were all rated as effective control measures, and once again poultry received many honorable mentions. Row covers earned more widespread use for the control of cucumber beetles than for any other pest, with more than 80 percent of people who had tried row covers reporting them to be effective. Seventy percent of gardeners who'd tried companion planting said this method works for controlling cucumber beetles, and 64 percent of people who'd tried yellow sticky traps reported these work.

5. Whitefly problems may be on the rise, because whitefly-plagued gardeners (36 percent reported a problem) often used exclamation points to emphasize their frustration with these tiny sucking pests. Insecticidal soap earned a high effectiveness rating (90 percent), though many respondents said they use Dawn or other dishwashing liquids rather than regulation insecticidal soap. (Caution: Some research has found that repeated use of soap or detergent sprays can reduce yields.)

- Top-Rated Natural Methods for Controlling Common Garden Pests
- Aphid: Insecticidal soap, attracting Beneficial's, horticultural oil
- Armyworm: Bt (Bacillus Thuringia's), handpicking, row covers
- Cabbage root maggot: Crop rotation, beneficial nematodes, diatomaceous earth

- Colorado potato beetle: Poultry predation, neem, handpicking
- Cucumber beetle: Poultry predation, neem, handpicking
- Cutworm: Rigid collars, Bt, diatomaceous earth
- Flea beetle: Insecticidal soap, garlic-pepper spray, row covers
- Onion root maggot: Crop rotation, beneficial nematodes, diatomaceous earth

Rubik's Cube Speedcubing Competition

MAY 28, 2016

Calgary's first ever speedcubing competition was held at the Cedarbrae Community Hall on Saturday, May 28, 2016. The doors opened at 8:00 AM but excited cubers began lining up at 7:15 AM. Competitors came from Vancouver, Victoria, Edmonton, Lethbridge and other cities to compete. Approximately 200 competitors competed in 8 events throughout the day. Out of those 200 competitors over 120 had never competed before in an official competition. It was great to see all of the excited cubers setting their inaugural times or trying to beat their existing times. It was enjoyable watching the parents cheer their children on while taking photos and videos. A lot of new friendships were made. Antoine Cantin came all the way from Ottawa to attend this competition. Antoine is a world record holder in 3x3x3 one handed average. His attendance was very exciting for so many that got to meet him and get his autograph. The event went off without a hitch even though, due to the large number of competitors we had to compress a 2 day event into 1 day.

I was also glad to stop by the great Neighbour Day Events in our ward. Through BBQs, bike parades, and block parties, I've seen that getting out, meeting your neighbours and learning more about each other is a fundamental of building community! Thank you to all of the volunteers who worked so hard to organize these great events!

Thanks to all who joined my team and I on June 9th, 2016 for our information session on Little Free Libraries. It was great to see so much interest in the little libraries, and another great example of building community! We were honoured to have Calgary's newly appointed Poet Laureate, Micheline Maylor share her words; to have Calgary Reads share on Calgary's reading landscape; and volunteers from the Lincoln Park Tool Shed to share about sharing tools! We'd also like to thank Voltage Creative Garage for hosting us in their awesome collaborative arts space, and the expertise that some of their artists shared with us. If you missed this event, please get in touch, and we'll be happy to share the information with you.

We've got many projects and project studies happening in our ward: the 50th Avenue Corridor Study; the construction of the 20th Street Bikeway; the construction of the 61st Avenue Greenway Corridor; the phasing of the SW Transitway BRT; the construction of the Crowchild-Flanders Avenue interchange; the River Park, Sandy Beach, Britannia Slopes redevelopment; the new Southwood Skatepark, and more.

As we move into the summer season, you will notice the Roads crews out repairing sidewalks, curbs, gutters, guard rails, fences, concrete barriers, and roadway surfaces like cracks, manholes, potholes and sinkholes. Please be patient as the crews take to maintaining over 1400 hectares of boulevard green space along major roadways, and continue sweeping where needed.

Remember to subscribe to your Ward 11 updates at www.ward11calgary.ca to stay informed about projects, and if you haven't yet – ask to receive our seasonal electronic newsletter for a summary of Ward 11 happenings mentioned above!
