PARDEE'S PUNS

By Mark Pardee

When the Ark settled safely after the flood, Noah opens the doors and commands the animals: "Go forth and multiply!" All the animals depart the Ark, except for two snakes in the back. Noah proclaims again: "Go forth and multiply," yet the snakes stay put. Perturbed, Noah finally asks them, "Why have you not followed my command?" The snakes flicker their tongues and answer, "We can't multiply, Noah – we're Adders."

IN & AROUND CALGARY

Alberta Health Services: EMS

Halloween Safety

The members of Calgary's Halloween Partners for Safety: Calgary's Child Magazine, EMS, Calgary Police, Fire, 9-1-1, Bylaw, Transit, and Shaw Communications would like to remind parents and trick-or-treaters of some Halloween safety tips, as October 31st approaches. Partners for Safety vehicles will be out patrolling communities on Halloween night to provide a visible safety resource for parents and trick-or-treaters.

Trick-or-Treaters

- Remember: all regular pedestrian rules still apply. Be sure to cross the road at marked crosswalks, or well-lit corners only. It is safest to work your way up one side of the street, and then cross once to the other side.
- Stay away from houses that are not well lit. Do not accept rides from strangers, or enter any home you feel is unsafe.
- Let your parents know where you are going to be at all times (route) and advise them if you will be late returning.

Costumes

- All costume accessories, such as sticks, rods, or wands, should be soft and flexible, with no sharp edges.
- Consider using hypoallergenic make-up kits instead of masks that may impair breathing, or vision.
- Be sure costumes are loose enough to be worn over warm clothing, but not so long that they become a tripping hazard. Costumes should not be longer than your child's ankles.
- Ensure your child is wearing adequate foot wear that takes into consideration weather conditions and walking.
- Consider sending your children with a flashlight for additional safety and increased visibility.
- When purchasing, or making costumes, look for materials and accessories that are labeled flame-resistant.
- Choose bright colored costumes that are highly visible. Adding reflective tape to costumes further increases visibility.

Parents

- Be certain that young trick-or-treaters are accompanied by an adult. Older children should stay in groups.
- Advise children not to eat anything until they return home. Dispose of any items that appear to have been tampered with, or that are not properly wrapped.
- Pre-determine boundaries to trick-or-treat within and establish a firm time to return home.

HAYSBORO HALL HAPPENINGS

By Fiona

A rain storm just ended. The sky is blue. How much this is like life. One minute things seem bleak and dreary, or we feel overwhelmed with events and circumstances... but then a patch of blue appears – maybe in the form of a text from a friend, a surprise visit, some good news. Petra is here right now helping get ready for preschool and the Membership Drive – and I am thankful that we can laugh and talk as the work gets done. M stopped by today with some information I needed to put together a grant – once again amidst the work there is talking and sharing about life. D dropped by yesterday, as did K and J, and M... all getting ready for programs to start – making sure everything is as it should be. J, K, and M dropped by to talk about Membership. M stopped in and told me about his trip to England and N about her eye problems. I am fortunate to have met lots of new people in Haysboro in the three years I have lived and worked here. As you know, I love to hear the stories – the rain storm ones and the blue sky ones... and those in between.

October is a thankful month and I am thankful for this wonderful community and all those I have met – I hope our fall is full of blue sky moments and in the rainy ones we remember that there are lots of great people to hold an umbrella for us... or give us a towel to wipe the rain off.

Halloween Safety

The members of Calgary's Halloween Partners for Safety: Calgary's Child Magazine, EMS, Calgary Police, Fire, 9-1-1, Bylaw, Transit, and Shaw Communications would like to remind parents and trick-or-treaters of some Halloween safety tips, as October 31st approaches. Partners for Safety vehicles will be out patrolling communities on Halloween night to provide a visible safety resource for parents and trick-or-treaters.

Trick-or-Treaters

- Remember: all regular pedestrian rules still apply. Be sure to cross the road at marked crosswalks, or well-lit corners only. It is safest to work your way up one side of the street, and then cross once to the other side.
- Stay away from houses that are not well lit. Do not accept rides from strangers, or enter any home you feel is unsafe.
- Let your parents know where you are going to be at all times (route) and advise them if you will be late returning.

Costumes

- All costume accessories, such as sticks, rods, or wands, should be soft and flexible, with no sharp edges.
- Consider using hypoallergenic make-up kits instead of masks that may impair breathing, or vision.
- Be sure costumes are loose enough to be worn over warm clothing, but not so long that they become a tripping hazard. Costumes should not be longer than your child's ankles.
- Ensure your child is wearing adequate foot wear that takes into consideration weather conditions and walking.
- Consider sending your children with a flashlight for additional safety and increased visibility.
- When purchasing, or making costumes, look for materials and accessories that are labeled flame-resistant.
- Choose bright colored costumes that are highly visible. Adding reflective tape to costumes further increases visibility.

Parents

- Be certain that young trick-or-treaters are accompanied by an adult. Older children should stay in groups.
- Advise children not to eat anything until they return home. Dispose of any items that appear to have been tampered with, or that are not properly wrapped.
- Pre-determine boundaries to trick-or-treat within and establish a firm time to return home.

Pet Pointers

By Dr. Sara E. Wick BSc., MSc. (Zoology), DVM

While most of us humans are pretty excited to get the kids back to school and get back into our normal routines this fall, there may be a member of your family that is less than enthused about the transition. Canine separation anxiety can range in severity from mild anxiety with no destruction to a condition that results in extreme home destruction, soiling and loud vocalization sure to disturb your neighbours.

Separation anxiety can put a lot of strain on the relationship you have with your pet. I have first hand experience with this one and it's challenging! The following are signs of separation anxiety; destructive or anxious behaviour when left alone, hyper-attachment to you or others in the house (your constant shadow), soiling or destruction aimed at the exit of the house, or if there is high pitched vocalization involved (a distress call).

Dogs diagnosed with separation anxiety can be helped with behaviour modification training. Severe cases may require medication to help ramp down the anxiety while training is occurring or even long term. Some simple things you can try at home if your beloved family member misses you a bit too much during the day include the following:

1. Discourage hyper-attachment by not always petting your dog when they seek your attention. Make attention on YOUR terms when they aren't seeking it. When hanging out together, try to keep more than a meter between you at times and encourage them to entertain themselves with interactive toys (peanut butter filled Kongs are great for this). It sounds like tough love but it's teaching your pet to be self confident.
2. Try to help them relax when you are away by turning on the TV or radio and consider using a pheromone collar or diffuser.
3. Try to make your exit less predictable or noticeable. Believe it or not, everything you do before leaving the house is well noted by Fido. From your last sip of coffee, to turning off the lights and picking up your keys, these are all cues that have taught him/her that you are leaving them. Each move escalates that feeling of dread. Solve this problem by doing these random behaviours multiple times a day when you are home, randomly. You can also leave the house, lock the door for a few seconds and then return immediately. Doing this repeatedly and excessively will teach your pup that these cues aren't so import.

Most importantly, chat to your veterinarian if you are battling canine separation anxiety. It helps to have a pro on your side.

Dear Constituents:

As we enter autumn, I continue to enjoy meeting constituents and attending community and stakeholder events. Also, I'm working hard on the Standing Committee for Resource Stewardship and the Economic Development Policy Committee; while reviewing bills and motions that best serve Albertans for session on October 31, 2016.

Some important initiatives the Government of Alberta is taking to benefit Albertans:

Pipelines: Premier Notley and the Ministers have had positive discussions with Canadian leaders about the importance of pipelines with success. Every government in Canada is committed to the view that developing energy infrastructure like pipelines is urgent to addressing our nation's economic situation. Pipelines are the safest way to transport Alberta's oil, benefitting all Canadians through jobs and a strong economy.

Tools for Albertans: Alberta Works offers a wide range of career and employment services to assist Albertans, whether making career transitions or looking for employment. For more information, visit <http://www.humanservices.alberta.ca/financial-support/3171.html>.

Minimum Wage: The $15 hourly minimum wage will be phased in by 2018, which means there will be fewer families visiting the foodbank to make ends meet. Nearly, 300,000 Albertans will get closer to a living wage. The government has taken steps for a smoother transition through the current economic climate and increased minimum wage through:

- Reducing small business corporate income tax rate from 3 per cent to 2 per cent.
- Reintroducing the Summer Temporary Employment Program (STEP) to give youth an opportunity to gain valuable skills and employers work for reduced minimum wages.

- Creating the Alberta Investor Tax Credit that encourages investment in small and medium-sized businesses in non-traditional sectors.
- Creating the Capital Investment Tax Credit that encourages businesses to invest in machinery, equipment and buildings to grow their business and create jobs.
- Continuing support of economic diversification and lending to small- and medium-sized businesses through a $1.5 billion program with Alberta Treasury Branches.
- Increasing Alberta Child Benefit up to $2,750 per year for the most vulnerable families
- Enhancing the Alberta Family Employment Tax Credit allowing more families to receive the credit or receive a larger credit.

Infrastructure Investment: The government's funding commitments include $900 million in affordable housing and $365 million to expand long-term care, which means more than 2,000 long-term care beds for seniors throughout Alberta. About 30 new school projects opened for students in September and another dozen or so projects will open by the end of 2016.

Healthcare Optimization: The Government of Alberta and the Alberta Medical Association (AMA) have achieved a tentative agreement. This agreement is good for doctors, and good for patients. It is a significant step in our promise to slow the growth of health spending while protecting services.

Southwest Calgary Ring Road: The construction of the ring road began in September. Please continue to bring all of your individual SWCRR inquiries to our office for a more specific response, but otherwise, please go to www.sw-crr.ca and www.calgary.ca/swrr.

You will notice continued work in our ward in preparation for the Southwest Calgary Ring Road (SWCRR). The City began work on SWCRR-related projects in late 2016. Each City project has its own timeline over the next four years, and the project teams will be updating and talking to residents throughout the different design and construction phases. The goal is to complete this work before fall 2021, when the Government of Alberta is scheduled to open the SWCRR.

Here's an update on The City projects and timelines that will affect us in Ward 11:

- 90th Avenue SW and Southland Drive connections
 - Design: 2016 – 2017
 - Construction: 2018
- Anderson Road widening, between SWCRR and Elbow Drive
 - Design: 2016 – 2017
 - Construction: 2017 – 2018
- Glenmore Trail widening and changes to the Glenmore / Crowchild interchange
 - Design: 2017
 - Construction: 2018 – 2019

As the designs progress throughout 2016 and 2017, more information will be confirmed and available to the community. If you have questions or comments about The City's role with the ring road, you can email the project team at CalgaryRingRoad@newsletter.ca, contact 311, or visit their website at www.calgary.ca/swrr. If you have questions about the SWCRR's design, location or construction schedule, please contact the Government of Alberta at email@sw-crr.ca, or visit their website at www.sw-crr.ca.

Other projects that are underway in our ward and related to the SWCRR are:

- the ENMAX utility relocations at 90th Avenue SW and area
- the Anderson Pedestrian Overpass linking the communities of Woodbine and Cedarbrae
- the Crowchild Trail Corridor Study
- the 37th Street Stormwater Trunk Project

Details on these projects can be found on my website at www.ward11calgary.ca, and on The City website at www.calgary.ca. It's certainly a busy fall, be sure to subscribe to your Ward 11 update at www.ward11calgary.ca to receive timely updates on the SWCRR, and other projects in your community, and city.
