Pardee's Puns

Many dishonest merchants become avid sailors. They know how to rig a sale.

Adam and Eve were thrown out of the Garden because they were too noisy – they raised Cain.

Popular paperback books always come from the trite side of the tracks.

The people who fall asleep at corporate board of directors' meetings are bored members, of course.

THE HAYSBORO SENIOR RESOURCES GROUP

DISCOUNTS FOR MEMBERS

Membership Drive for 1,000

by Ellen Scott

Get onboard! Haysboro Community Association wants to see 1,000 paid memberships by the end of May. And with the small annual Membership fee dropping to $5 for both individuals and families, most everyone can opt in.

Haysboro Community Association has 457 paid memberships. But there's lots of room for growth with 3,000 residential homes in the community. The Association wants to include those who find Membership fees a hardship.

"Fees shouldn't be a financial barrier; memberships strengthen our association and our community," said Kourtney Branagan, President of the HCA. "When we become engaged in community organizations and events, we eventually begin to recognize faces. In this way, the community itself becomes a protected place where children can walk safely down the street."

Branagan led the initiative to drop the annual membership fee from $30 to $5. She wanted neighbors defining Haysboro in an affordable way. She also realized that because members are a majority of volunteers, making memberships equitable would also bring diversity.

"The board is all volunteer run, as is Pub Night, Easter Egg Hunt, Jane's Walk, Scavenger Hunt, Community Clean Up, the Casino fundraiser and Garden Coalition to name a few," she explained. "The Senior's Resource Group has various excursions, barbecues and Christmas socials to look after. And even the rink and tennis/pickle ball court need maintenance."

So, pay the $5 and get a bunch of Membership perks. The Association puts residents on its email list to receive important notices and messages. Members get cut-rate tickets to events, access to the tennis/pickle ball court and exceptional facility rental discounts. They also have voting privileges at the annual general meeting.

There is an urgency, however, as the $5 annual fee sale ends May 31, 2019. To help, the Association has added a convenient sponsorship program where you can assist your neighbor by donating a few extra $5.

Take advantage of this generous offer - annual Membership fees might not be this low again. Go to haysboro.org then Membership at the top left-hand side of the page. Or see HCA Administrator Fiona Swanson in the office at 1204 - 89 Avenue SW.

SCHOOL SHOUT-OUTS

Haysboro Preschool Gets A-Plus

by Ellen Scott

It was another rocking year of growth for preschool classes in Haysboro. Young families are repopulating the otherwise well-known seniors' community of Haysboro, and teacher Kerry Urban, who has her master's in education, says the classrooms are near capacity.

"Last school year, enrollment was 40," Urban explained. "This year we are at 44. Classes are capped at 12 each, so with four classes, we are almost full."

Three-year-olds have classes Tuesday and Thursday mornings or afternoons. Four-year-olds attend Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, or Monday and Wednesday afternoons. Each class is 2.25 hours. New to 2019/20, there will be a three-and-four-year-old split class.

"By attrition, the three-year-olds are moving up and we find we have more room in those classes. With that, we have more four-year-olds and we don't want to turn anyone away," said Urban. "We've done multi-age classes in the past. It's educationally sound and a reality in cities everywhere."

Teachers Urban and Allison Rau-Dobson are both Alberta certified instructors. Not only do children in Haysboro have the benefit of professional teachers, but the curriculum is solidly built for individual learning. Mighty Learners is a program endorsed by Alberta's Early Childhood Services which uses the Early Learning Curriculum Framework. This instructs young children to nurture their learning through play. Play is defined as the best learning tool. "Our curriculum is play-based," said Urban. "The children's pre-academic learning goals can be experienced through structured play."

Another program incorporated into the classroom and designed in conjunction with Alberta Education is Big Plans for Little Kids. It's a partnership with preschools for early intervention. This program screens children for speech impediments, motor skills, coping strategies and behavioural patterns. It's another benefit provided by Haysboro preschool. "They strengthen our program and their model is wonderful. We're glad to have this to offer," said Urban. "These are young citizens of the community. Here they build networks that will take them into high school and beyond."

There are still vacancies in the three-year-old classes next school year. To register, any family can go online to haysboro.org/preschool. Or you can email preschoolregistrar@haysboro.org. Also, Fiona Swanson at the Community Hall can be contacted at 403.253.1563.

HAYSBORO HALL HAPPENINGS

by Fiona Swanson

Do you have a Bucket List? You know, a list of things you want to do before you 'kick the bucket'?

As I approach 50, I am very aware of needing to check things off of my bucket list – it is not really that long.... For this year I plan to take my Grade One Royal Conservatory Piano – no more not practicing for me!! I also want to participate this year in the Parkinson's Step and Stride Walk in September – and be able to walk 10kms. The closest thing to me walking that far at one time was wondering around Disneyland, so I have to get training.

Something that has been on my list for a long time is to go to Wimbledon and watch Tennis; each year I submit my form into the Overseas Ballot, and each year I hear nothing. This year they are having a special event in celebration of the renovation and installation of a new roof on Court Number One – so I entered, and low and behold – they drew my name – off to Wimbledon we go! I know, it is not the 'real' thing, but Martina Navratilova, John McEnroe, and others will be playing, plus there has to be Royalty there! Maybe the Queen and Philip if they are up for it! We are very excited to be going in May and I will let you know how it was – as I put a big check mark on my list.

At the hall we have, not a 'bucket list' per se, but maybe more of a 'to do' jar. Lists of upkeep items, lists of things needing replaced or renovated, lists of programs we would like to offer, lists of events that would be great to host... I might need to start a list of lists! You may not have seen Petra around the office much as she has another full-time job.... And as it was on my list of things to do... I am pleased that Leigh Ann is adding working part time with Jennifer and I to her list of things to do.

One thing that probably isn't on your Bucket List, is to be on the Haysboro Board – because if it was you would be doing it! But I would like you to consider being a part of your Community Association and in particularly taking on a leadership role.

They say many hands make light work – or perhaps many people working on the lists... won't lead to list-less-ness, but rather a community of people sharing their knowledge, interests, time and ideas to help - keeping us far away from 'kicking the bucket' as a Community Association.

Off to practice the piano – What's on your list?

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Longer, warmer days, green grass, budding trees. May is really the month of SPRING! I'm one of those anxious gardeners who starts to move perennials, plant hardy annuals, and most weekends you can find me in the aisles of the garden centre planning my containers and deciding which veggies to grow this year. I've got to finish building out my new veggie beds along the garage so we can eat fresh all summer long.

I know there are plenty of proficient gardeners – both produce and floral in the neighbourhood. I love to wander the neighbourhood and see what everyone else is growing. Last year I did a plant swap with a friend to divide our perennials. I've got a few that might need good homes this year too so send me a note if you're after cranesbill, day lily, or iris. I'm still seeking that perfect spot to grow sweet peas, my favourite annual.

We'd like to thank everyone for their patience and cooperation during our exterior renovation. We definitely hit some challenges and had hoped to have the project completed much sooner. I keep telling myself that in two years this won't matter anymore and we'll be better off for it. I've heard such positive feedback about the new look, this excitement kept me excited too – thanks to everyone who acted as a cheerleader during the project.

There are no shortage of events happening in May. And I've set the target to get to 1000 memberships by the end of the month. This is when the $5 promotion is supposed to end. With enough support we can continue the initiative – read about it further in the article in this month's horn.

I hope to see you at our pot luck on the 26th, I think I will bring a salad.

Kourtney
