MPCA ADVISORY COMMITTEE

As a valued community partner, you are invited to join the This is My Neighbourhood - Meadowlark Park advisory committee.

A little bit about "This is My Neighbourhood" (TIMN)

This is my neighbourhood aims to transform how The City of Calgary works in neighbourhoods. Through the engagement of local residents, community associations, non-profit organizations and businesses, we'll work with you to develop a neighbourhood vision that outlines your future aspirations.

Guided by this vision, The City will work with you to create and deliver initiatives which may include small-scale infrastructure improvements, programs and services that will help your neighbourhood be an even better place to live, work and play.

TIMN began in 2015 with a group of 14 inaugural neighbourhoods. As part of the TIMN program, The City partnered with the first group of neighbourhoods to deliver more than 100 programs, services and small scale projects requested by residents. More information can be found on Calgary.ca

TIMN Engagement

As part of the TIMN initiative, The City of Calgary plans to collect feedback from residents online and in person at a variety of events, throughout the year in the neighbourhood.

We will be asking residents to give their ideas about the neighbourhood vision what is most important in Meadowlark Park.

TIMN Advisory Committee expectations:

- Be a champion of This is my neighbourhood within Meadowlark Park: be creative, share the process with your neighbourhood and learn about your neighbour's ideas for Meadowlark Park.
- Commit to the engagement process with the neighbourhood and stay involved in the program until implementation of the initiatives through 2018.

Potential Meeting Schedule

Get to Know Your Local Farmers' Market: Alberta Approved and Public

In Alberta, there are two different types of markets – Alberta approved farmers' markets and public markets. Both types of markets involve a gathering of vendors who sell their products directly to consumers. The difference lies in the ownership/management of the market and the privileges accorded to each type of market. One is not better than the other - they are simply different.

An Alberta approved farmers' market is one that has been approved by Alberta Agriculture and Forestry (AF) and as such meets the requirements of the program guidelines that have been approved by the Minister. These include:

- Being sponsored by a not-for-profit community group, local Chamber of Commerce, municipality or agricultural society or forming their own not-for-profit society under the Societies Act. Privately-owned markets are not eligible to operate under the banner of an Alberta approved farmers' market.
- Operate under the direction of an advisory body or board of directors. Public markets typically have forprofit ownership and there is no requirement for an advisory body or board of directors in that situation.
- 80 per cent of the vendors are Albertans who meet the "make it, bake it, grow it" criteria; the remaining 20 per cent of the vendors are selling products that complement the market mix.
- Sale of any used good or flea market products are prohibited.
- Must operate for no less than ten days per year and for two hours per market day.
- Have at least one vendor meeting per year.
- · Have developed a set of rules which govern the operation of the market.

- A copy of these rules must be made available to AF and all the vendors at the market.
- Adhere to the administrative requirements of the pro-
- As an approved farmers' market, it receives the following benefits:
- All markets follow the same guidelines that set minimum standards thereby strengthening the markets across the province.
- · Approved farmers' markets are recognized as such in Part 3 of the Alberta Public Health Act Food Regu-
- Only Alberta approved farmers' markets can use the official mark - Sunnygirl - in their advertising and promotion and can make arrangements to use the Sunnygirl logo on highway signage.
- Alberta approved farmers' markets can take advantage of the free promotion provided by AF.

A public market is generally one that is privately-owned and includes all types of operations, including flea markets. As a public market, each food vendor must have an individual food permit and be operating in a Health-approved facility. Most municipalities require each vendor at a public market to have a business or peddler's license, whereas often only a single license is required for the approved farmers' market because of its not-for-profit status. A public market does not receive any of the above noted benefits enjoyed by an approved farmers' market. To find more information about farmers' markets near you visit www.agric.gov.ab.ca.

Back-to-School Safety Tips

For the youngest of Calgarians, September means time for a brand-new school year. School zones in September often bring more congestion, distraction and more pedestrians than in the summer. Here are three tips to keep in mind when in school zones this September and all year around. Exercising caution and care, we can make our communities safer.

Follow the speed limit: First and foremost, follow the posted speed limit with is 30 km/h. School and playground time zones are between the hours of 7:30 a.m. – 9 p.m. A collision with a pedestrian at 30 km/h is more likely to end injury than a possible fatality going at residential speed of 50 km/h.

Stay in between the lines: We want to set good example for young pedestrians. Stop, look both ways, always good practice to look one more time to the left then walk across the street between the cross walk. Attempt to make yourself as visible as possible. These are all good habits to role model.

Follow directions: Listen and watch for directions from the school safety patrollers. Follow the direction of signals, signs and the specific rules that the school has implemented. These directions are for your safety, reducing congestion and reducing risks.

For more resources, check out our website at calgary communities.com

TAKE ON WELLNESS

It's that time of year again. Store shelves are stacked with back-to-school supplies and racks of summer clothes are being replaced with sweaters and long pants. Getting your child ready for the new school year includes stocking up on notebooks, binders and pencils, but there's more to making the most of the year ahead taking care of your child's health. As the most important head-start you can give your child, beginning the year with good health is also simple with this back-to-school health check-list:

- Immunization: Ensure your child's immunizations are up-to-date for his or her age. This is especially important for kids entering kindergarten or elementary school. If your son or daughter is in Grade 5 and/or Grade 9, also watch for immunization consent forms coming home early in the school year. Remember: your signature on these forms is needed for your child to get his or her important grade 5 and/or grade 9 immunizations.
- Vision screening: Have your child's vision tested before he or she starts kindergarten (ideally by age three) and again every year, until 18 years of age. It's estimated that up to 80 per cent of learning is visual, so keeping your kid's eyes healthy goes a long way in encouraging their full learning potential. Eye exams for children up to 18 years of age are free of charge, covered by Alberta Health.
- Hearing/speech screening: If you suspect your child may have a hearing or speech problem, ask your family doctor for a referral to an audiologist and/or speech specialist. Left untreated, these problems could interfere with your child's learning.

- Dental checkup: Regular dental checkups start early! If your child hasn't had his or her teeth examined prior to starting school, now is a good time to start. Remember: good oral health is essential to good overall health. Regular checkups and cleanings help detect dental problems early, and ensure your child's teeth stay healthy for life.
- Emergency contacts: Make sure the school has upto-date emergency numbers for each of your children, including contact information for parents, physicians, etc.
- Health conditions: Ensure the school has up-to-date information about any health conditions, allergies or physical impairments your child may have. Also inform the school about any medications your child takes.
- Backpack basics: Your child's backpack should fit properly and shouldn't be too heavy for him or her to carry, which means it should weigh no more than 10 to 15 per cent of your child's body weight. The backpack should have broad shoulder straps and a waist strap that keeps the bag firmly on the spine. Watch for warning signs that the bag may be too heavy, including sore shoulders or changes in posture. For more information visit: https://mvhealth.alberta.ca/health/ pages/conditions.aspx?Hwid=abk0958
- Nutrition plan: Ensure your child has a healthy breakfast before heading to school in the mornings, and help him or her pack a nutritious lunch. Planning meals ahead of time and involving children in planning and preparation can make this task more manageable and fun. For more information visit: http:// www.albertahealthservices.ca/assets/info/nutrition/ if-nfs-whats-for-lunch.pdf.

We hope you all had a great summer! At Calgary Humane Society, we are winding down from another successful season of summer camps that saw hundreds of compassionate children and teens spend a summer learning how to care for animals.

Helping animals is a great way for kids to become involved with their community! Many children feel a connection to the natural world and enjoy learning about animals of all shapes and sizes, but these interactions build more than just knowledge! Research has shown that children who spend time with animals learn enhance many social skills including:

- Empathy Empathy is considered by many psychologists to be the root of "pro-social" behavior. Pro-social behaviors are the behaviors that allow us to build relationships, maintain friendships and connect with our communities. Interacting with animals allows children to practice skills of non-verbal empathy as they try to understand how an animal is experiencing the world.
- Compassion Empathy is a foundation for understanding others, but compassion moves those feelings into action. Through acting compassionately, children learn that they can have a profound impact on the community around them and that they play a key role in "creating the world they want to live in".
- Respect When children help others they learn more about why other people (and animals) sometimes need help, and why needing help is not a bad thing. Through helping animals, children learn that even the smallest fish deserves to have good food and a safe home by virtue of being a living, thinking, feeling being.

Are you looking for a great way for your child to become more involved in helping animals? We would love to help! While our minimum age to volunteer is 16 (for safety reasons) we have many great programs for kids of all ages!

- Attend a youth program! Children in our kids' clubs and youth programs get to participate in select animal interactions with carefully chosen animals and complete fun activities with animal loving peers!
- Party with a purpose! Check out Calgary Humane Society's birthday party program and spend your next birthday with us! Our experienced birthday staff lead the party for you - all you do is bring the cake and presents!
- Collect donations/wish list items Another great way to get kids involved in helping is to raise funds or collect items for animals in need! Kids who collect donations for the shelter can book a special 'behind the scenes' tour with our humane education department too!
- Take great care of your pets! Your child can be an "ambassador" for great animal care by encouraging them to learn more about your pets and help with their care.

Looking for more information on our programs or more ideas on how to get your child involved in helping animals? Our Humane Education team would love to help! Visit www.calgaryhumane.ca or call 403-205-4455 for more information.

 Announced a strategy to prevent and address genderbased violence.

• Introduced legislation to remove section 159 of the Criminal Code – ensuring Canadians are not unfairly criminalized for consensual activities.

- Flying the pride, transgender, and bi flags on Parliament Hill for the first time.
- Beginning the process of an apology to the entirety of the LGBTQ2 community for previous governments' failings to defend their rights and freedoms.

I am proud to be able to be an ally to the community and work with Canadians as your Member of Parliament in supporting good public policy. As always, my door is open to you. It's about the work we're doing in the nation's capital to make sure all Canadians are free to identify themselves and express their gender as they wish, without fear of discrimination and hate. With having Pride this September, it's both topical and relevant. Calgary Centre is a Pride community – in the heart of its downtown core, we have one of the most vibrant LGBTQ2 communities in North America.

Before I begin with this month's newsletter I wanted to make sure you knew about my BBQ on Sunday, September 10th. We'll be at the Sunalta Community Hall

(1627-10 Ave SW) from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM, where we will have my father, Richard Hehr, doing his best Elvis impersonation, free food, and a celebration to cap off

Next, I wanted to share with you an update about an issue near and dear to Calgary Centre.

I have had the pleasure of working with advocates – like my caucus mate and special advisor to the Prime Minister on LGBTO2 issues, MP Randy Boissonnault - and others across my involvement. At each place and stage my efforts were to make sure that no one should be refused a job, be disadvantaged in the workplace, be unable to access services, or be the target of harassment and violence because of their gender identity or gender expression.

One part of this was with Gay Straight Alliances being supported in every school across Alberta where and when students want them: first with my motion (Motion 503), which with community supporters, students, parents, and staff, ultimately making it the law of the land. The research is there that students have a reduced rate of suicide – across the entire population of students, not just LGBTQ2 students – with policies that encourage and allow students to support one another.

Since moving federally this work has not stopped or stalled. Our government has moved full-steam ahead with:

• Passing C-16, a bill that ensures the full protection of transgender people across Canada,

September is an exciting time for kids (and certainly for parents too!). New schools and new friends, all supported by tremendous teachers and staff. As kids head back to school please be careful driving around schools; those kids are excited to get back to school and may not always be paying as much attention as they should.

As fall sets in I'm moving on from a busy summer of community activities and shifting my focus to activities in the Alberta Legislature. I was appointed to the all-party Ministerial Panel on Child Intervention early this year to look at ways to improve Alberta's child intervention system. In the initial phase, the panel heard from stakeholders across from Alberta and engaged in an open and collaborative conversation about how to strengthen Alberta's child death review process. The panel provided detailed recommendations to streamline and strengthen the child death review process, which led to the passage of Bill 18 Child Protection and Accountability Act last spring.

In Phase 2, the Panel is reviewing legislation, policies, current practices, literature, relevant data, and past recommendations, including those from the Office of the Child and Youth Advocate and the Auditor General. It is also soliciting feedback from the public, subject matter experts, Indigenous communities, Albertans with lived experience and frontline staff (the comment period is still open; you can make a submission via email at CIPanel.questions@gov.ab.ca).

Our next step is to visit reserves across the province to hear from Indigenous people in their own communities about the vast over-representation of Indigenous children in Alberta's child intervention system. Currently, 69% of the over 10,000 children receiving services in Alberta are Indigenous.

Upon completion of our work the panel will submit recommendations addressing:

- The root causes and factors that contribute to child and family involvement in the child intervention system
- · Current funding and resource levels for the child intervention system as well as an assessment of workplace culture and staff morale

- Existing supports for families, including supports for kinship caregivers, foster parents, and families at-risk of needing child intervention services
- Opportunities and concrete actions to improve the child intervention system, address over-representation of Indigenous children in intervention system and improve outcomes for all children receiving child intervention services
- · Identifying recommendations of past studies, prioritizing them and discussing implementation timelines and oversight

Whenever possible panel meetings are open to the public. A complete list of all upcoming meetings will be posted on the panel's website as soon as dates, times and locations are confirmed. Details can be found at https://www.alberta.ca/child-intervention-panel.aspx. Again, if you have questions or comments you wish to share with the panel you can submit your thoughts via email to CIPanel.guestions@gov.ab.ca.

And as always, I am very interested in hearing from you on this or any other issue. My constituency office can be reached at Calgary.Elbow@assembly.ab.ca or (403) 252-0346.
